EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP PROGRAM
FOR MANAGERS AND DIRECTORS

>> The Executive Leadership Program for Managers and Directors is designed for individuals and organizations who want to master the skills needed to transition from management effectiveness to leadership excellence.

We will focus on the eight leader roles we all need to master if we want to become a highly-respected leader and change-maker;

— Director, Producer, Coach, Communicator, Monitor, Coordinator, Innovator, and Change Agent.

This award-winning program is built as a hybrid experience; 50% online (the learning) and 50% classroom application (the doing). Read on for full program details.

THE LEADERSHIP MODEL
COMPETING VALUES FRAMEWORK

Framework Origin:
The Competing Values Framework (CVF) emerged from research focused on organizational effectiveness (R. Quinn and J. Rohrbaugh). They discovered that high-performing organizations mastered the four different ways of creating, delivering, and capturing value. The CVF was named one of the Top 20 business models of all time by the editors at Financial Times.

Framework Application:
Leadership is the ability to inspire others to take on their most difficult challenges and succeed. Excellent leaders model the way by continuously creating and delivering value. The CVF teaches us the four primary ways to create and deliver value. The goal is to master the CVF approach so we can reach our full potential as leaders, innovators, and change-makers.

THE 4 CVF QUADRANTS
AND THE 8 LEADER ROLES

The Compete Quadrant:
Value-enhancing activities focused on being aggressive and forceful in the pursuit of competitiveness. The roles are Leader as Director and Leader as Producer.

The Collaborate Quadrant:
Activities that develop people and create a positive culture. The roles are Leader as Coach and Leader as Communicator.

The Control Quadrant:
Activities focused on improvements in efficiency by implementing better processes. The roles are Leader as Monitor, Leader as Coordinator.

The Create Quadrant:
Activities that create innovation in products and services we produce. The roles are Leader as Innovator and Leader as Change Agent.

Testimonials:
Below are comments from a few of the business professionals who recently completed the program.

“The Executive Leadership Program was informative, engaging, and unlike any other program I’ve ever attended. The content was extremely useful and the instructors were experts at delivering the material in a concise and inspiring manner.” -- Bonnie B., Controller

“KSU’s Executive Leadership Program provided valuable insights on how to become a highly-respected leader within my organization. I really enjoyed the hybrid format!” -- Llewella D., Global Learning Professional

“It was truly an honor to attend the Executive Leadership Program and learn from such wonderful instructors. I left the program feeling more equipped and humbly grounded as a person and as a leader.” -- Trevor R., Athletic Director
Kennesaw State University’s approach to hybrid program design was named a finalist for the Excalibur Award by the Technology Association of Georgia and was highlighted in the July 2018 issue of Chief Learning Officer magazine. We integrate the best practices in “GAME-ified” online learning with the best practices in classroom action-learning and on-the-job application.

Learning through PLAY: Your leadership journey begins by completing the program’s online content (see above) before each face-to-face session. This is online learning at its best using “GAME-ification” and micro-learning techniques. You will conquer quests, tackle to-do assignments, earn points, and climb the leaderboard!

Learning through PRACTICE: With the “learning” portion of the program done online, in advance, and at your convenience; the face-to-face session becomes an Application Lab. We will practice what you learned online focused on your leadership development priorities.

Learning through PURPOSE: As a faculty team, our goal is help you master the program’s content so you can teach others in your organization how to transition from management effectiveness to leadership excellence.

WHY THE HYBRID APPROACH TO LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT?

Steve Olson, Ph.D., CPI
